TAYLOR, JR., EARLENE WILLIAMS, DOREEN MAYBERRY, JESSICA DICKERSON, TIFFANY WILLIAMS, HARRIET RANDOLPH, JAMALIA ABRAMS, and TEARRA DATES; along with other persons known and unknown to the Grand Jury, did knowingly and intentionally conspire together and with each other to defraud the United States and an agency thereof, that is, the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA), Food and Nutrition Service (FNS) and specifically to defraud the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), formerly known as the Food Stamp Program, to commit offenses against the United States, that is: to violate Title 7, United States Code, Sections 2024(b) and 2024(c) by: (1) knowingly using, transferring, acquiring, and possessing food stamp coupons and food stamp benefits, authorization cards and access devices of a value of $5,000 or more in a manner not authorized by Title 7, United States Code, Section 51; and (2) presenting food stamp coupons and food stamp benefits knowing them to have been received, transferred, and used in a manner not authorized by Title 7, United States Code, Chapter 51.

INTRODUCTION

At all times material hereto:

2. The Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (“SNAP”), formerly known as the Food Stamp Program, was a governmental program administered by the United States Department of Agriculture (“USDA”) through the Food and Nutrition Service (“FNS”) in Ohio. Each authorized food stamp recipient in Ohio was issued an Ohio Direction Electronic Benefits Transfer (“EBT”) card that contained a unique account number and an encrypted personal identification number (“PIN”). EBT cards were similar to bank debit cards in that a food stamp recipient could purchase food from authorized retailers using the EBT card. EBT benefits were downloaded monthly to the individual Ohio Direction EBT cards. EBT benefits were intended to be used by eligible food stamp recipients to purchase food from authorized retailers.

3. Retail stores could participate in the Food Stamp Program only with the authorization of the USDA-FNS. Authorized participants in the Food Stamp Program could only accept and redeem EBT benefits in connection with the sale of eligible items; they were not authorized to accept EBT benefits from other retailers, nor could they exchange food stamp benefits for cash.

4. The Ohio EBT system was operated through a contract between the FNS and the State of Ohio. The State of Ohio maintained a primary service contract with Affiliated Computer Services (“ACS”), located in Dallas, Texas. Authorized stores were provided with a Point of Sale electronic card-reading device that was to be used only for food stamp customers actually purchasing authorized food stamp grocery items. The EBT system electronically debited the EBT card and credited the retail food store account each time a customer used the EBT card to make a purchase at an EBT-authorized store.

5. ACS settled and reconciled each retailer at the end of the ACS business day and an Automated Clearing House file was transmitted to the ACS concentrator bank. The bank would, in turn, do its internal processing and send the funds through the federal banking system to the appropriate retailer or network bank location. Upon settlement of the day's EBT receipts, the host computer electronically transferred funds to the retail store's designated bank account as reimbursement for the EBT card transactions. As part of the Food Stamp Program, a licensed vendor accepted responsibility for violations of the Food Stamp Program regulations, including violations committed by any of the vendor's employees, including all acts of fraud and trafficking.

OBJECT OF THE CONSPIRACY

6. The objects of the conspiracy were to: (a) defraud the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program; (b) convert illegally obtained SNAP benefits, through the use of the Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) cards, into money that the defendants, their co-conspirators, and designees could use for any purpose; and (c) to enrich defendants.

MANNER AND MEANS

7. It was part of the conspiracy that on or about March 18, 2010, GEORGE RAFIDI filed articles of incorporation for Ghazy, LLC, doing business as Breaden Market, a convenience store located in Youngstown, Ohio with approximately 672 square feet of operating space.

8. It was further part of the conspiracy that on or about March 31, 2010, GEORGE RAFIDI completed and submitted a Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program Application for Stores, for Breaden Market to the USDA FNS. Breaden Market then began operating in or about April 2010.

9. It was further part of the conspiracy that SNAP recipients or beneficiaries went to Breaden Market and obtained cash and prohibited items (such as alcohol and tobacco) in exchange for their SNAP benefits.

10. It was further part of the conspiracy that GEORGE RAFIDI, VINCENT E. POYSSICK, SR.; and CHARLES R. THOMAS fraudulently redeemed SNAP benefits and caused money to be deposited into Breaden Market's bank accounts.
